

«Salamah» is the digital portal for Civil Defense services in Saudi Arabia.

The «Salamah» portal is a comprehensive digital portal that offers civil defense services to investors and companies in the Kingdom. It aims to facilitate your investment journey by transforming all procedures for issuing and renewing licenses into seamless digital processes, saving time and effort while ensuring the highest safety standards. Collaborating with other government platforms, «Salamah» contributes to standardizing procedures to ease the efficient and smooth implementation of civil defense requirements. the need to visit Civil Defense offices, in addition to many other services.

Main services of the «Salamah» portal

- Issuance and renewal of civil defense licenses: You can now issue licenses electronically through simple steps.
- Transfer of license ownership: The portal allows you to easily and flexibly transfer civil defense licenses between parties.
- Tracking application status: You can track the status of your applications at any time and from anywhere.
- Accreditation of safety and elevator companies and technical offices: Provides you with a list of accredited companies and offices, ensuring high quality in the implementation of safety projects.
- Submitting technical reports and safety equipment certificates: Fast and easy electronic procedures for issuing the required documents, facilitating compliance with safety standards, and meeting civil defense requirements.

Advantages of the «Salamah» portal

Issuance and renewal of civil defense licenses

- You can now issue licenses electronically through simple steps.directly open.

Transfer of license ownership:

- The portal allows you to easily and flexibly transfer civil defense licenses between parties.

Tracking application status:

- You can track the status of your applications at any time and from anywhere.

Accreditation of safety and elevator companies and technical offices:

- Provides you with a list of accredited companies and offices, ensuring high quality in the implementation of safety projects.

Submitting technical reports and safety equipment certificates

- Fast and easy electronic procedures for issuing the required documents, facilitating compliance with safety standards, and meeting civil defense requirements.

Additional benefits for investors in «Salamah»

Accredited companies and offices

Dealing with trusted and accredited entities from civil defense.

Simple and easy user interface

A seamless experience for managing applications and follow-ups electronically.

Cost savings

Digital transformation helps reduce costs associated with traditional procedures.

Targeted groups through the «Salamah» portal:

Commercial establishments

Supporting safety requirements to facilitate conducting business activities safely.

Elevator installation and maintenance companies

Facilitating accreditation and follow-up procedures to ensure operational safety.

Engineering and technical offices

Easing the submission of required technical reports and approving projects easily.

Elevator installation and maintenance companies

Facilitating accreditation and follow-up procedures to ensure operational safety.

Why choose the «Salamah» portal?

■ Ease of use and integration

A simple and convenient user interface that ensures a seamless experience in managing applications and follow-ups.

■ Time and cost savings

Eliminating traditional paper procedures contributes to speeding up operations and reducing costs.

■ Your trusted partner in investment

«Salamah» ensures the efficient and effective implementation of safety requirements, maintaining the continuity of your business safely.

The Salamah portal is a partner in your investment journey.

At «Salamah,» we offer comprehensive digital solutions to efficiently facilitate civil defense requirements, ensuring the continuity of your business safely.

Register now as an investor, safety company, or engineering office through the website, and experience fast, reliable services to meet your licensing requirements with ease..

Salamah Portal

salamah.998.gov.sa